

APPENDIX A. RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Notice to Seller: Oklahoma Law (the "Residential Property Condition Disclosure Act," Title 60, O.S., §831 et.seq., effective July 1, 1995) requires Sellers of 1 and/or 2 residential dwelling units to complete this form. A Seller must complete, sign and date this disclosure form and deliver it or cause it to be delivered to a purchaser as soon as practicable, but in any event no later than before an offer is accepted by the Seller. If the Seller becomes aware of a defect after delivery of this statement, but before the Seller accepts an offer to purchase, the Seller must deliver or cause to be delivered an amended disclosure statement disclosing the newly discovered defect to the Purchaser. If the disclosure form or amendment is delivered to a Purchaser after an offer to purchase has been made by the Purchaser, the offer to purchase shall be accepted by the Seller only after a Purchaser has acknowledged receipt of this statement and confirmed the offer to purchase in writing.

Notice to Purchaser: The declarations and information contained in this disclosure statement are not warranties, express or implied of any kind, and are not a substitute for any inspections or warranties the Purchaser may wish to obtain. The information contained in this disclosure statement is not intended to be a part of any contract between the Purchaser and Seller. The information and statements contained in this disclosure statement are declarations and representations of the Seller and are not the representations of the real estate licensee.

DISCLOSURE TO SELLER OR BUYER OF BROKERAGE DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES AND SERVICES

This notice may be part of or attached to any of the following:

- Buyer Brokerage Agreement, Listing Brokerage Agreement, Option Agreement, Sales Agreement, Exchange Agreement, Other

1. Duties and Responsibilities. A Broker who provides Brokerage Services to one or both parties shall describe and disclose in writing the Broker's duties and responsibilities prior to the party or parties signing a contract to sell, purchase, option, or exchange real estate.

A Broker shall have the following duties and responsibilities which are mandatory and may not be abrogated or waived by a Broker, whether working with one party, or working with both parties:

- A. treat all parties to the transaction with honesty and exercise reasonable skill and care;
B. unless specifically waived in writing by a party to the transaction:
1) receive all written offer and counteroffers;
2) reduce offers or counteroffers to a written form upon request of any party to a transaction; and
3) present timely all written offers and counteroffers.
C. inform, in writing, the party for whom the Broker is providing Brokerage Services when an offer is made that the party will be expected to pay certain closing costs, Brokerage Service costs and the approximate amount of the costs;
D. keep the party for whom the Broker is providing Brokerage Services informed regarding the transaction;
E. timely account for all money and property received by the Broker;
F. keep confidential information received from a party or prospective party confidential. The confidential information shall not be disclosed by a Broker without the consent of the party disclosing the information, the disclosure is required by law, or the information is made public or becomes public as the result of actions from a source other than the Broker. The following information shall be considered confidential and shall be the only information considered confidential in a transaction:
1) that a party or prospective party is willing to pay more or accept less than what is being offered,
2) that a party or prospective party is willing to agree to financing terms that are different from those offered,
3) the motivating factors of the party or prospective party purchasing, selling, optioning or exchanging the property, and
4) information specifically designated as confidential by a party unless such information is public.
G. disclose information pertaining to the Property as required by Residential Property Condition Disclosure Act;
H. comply with all requirements of the Oklahoma Real Estate Code and all applicable statutes and rules;
I. when working with one party or both parties to a transaction, the duties and responsibilities set forth in this section shall remain in place for both parties.

2. Brokerage Services provided to both parties to the transaction. The Oklahoma broker relationships law (Title 59, Oklahoma Statutes, Section 858-351 - 858-363) allows a real estate Firm to provide brokerage services to both parties to the transaction. This could occur when a Firm has contracted with a Seller to sell their property and a prospective Buyer contacts that same Firm to see the property. If the prospective Buyer wants to make an offer on the property, the Firm must now provide a written notice to both the Buyer and Seller that the Firm is now providing brokerage services to both parties to the transaction. The law states that there are mandatory duties and responsibilities that must be performed by the broker for each party.

3. Broker providing fewer services. If a Broker intends to provide fewer Brokerage Services than those required to complete a transaction, the Broker shall provide written disclosure to the party for whom the Broker is providing services. The disclosure shall include a description of those steps in the transaction that the Broker will not provide and state that the Broker assisting the other party in the transaction is not required to provide assistance with these steps in any manner.

4. Confirmation of disclosure of duties and responsibilities. The duties and responsibilities disclosed by the Broker shall be confirmed in writing by each party in a separate provision, incorporated in or attached to the contract to purchase, option or exchange real estate.

I understand and acknowledge that I have received this notice on 18 day of July, 2019.

Disclosure of Information on Lead-Based Paint and/or Lead-Based Paint Hazards

Lead Warning Statement

Every purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The seller of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the seller's possession and notify the buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase.

Seller's Disclosure

(a) Presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards (check (i) or (ii) below):

(i) Known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards are present in the housing (explain).

>> (ii) Seller has no knowledge of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

(b) Records and reports available to the seller (check (i) or (ii) below):

(i) Seller has provided the purchaser with all available records and reports pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing (list documents below).

>> (ii) Seller has no reports or records pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

Purchaser's Acknowledgment (initial)

(c) Purchaser has received copies of all information listed above.

>> (d) Purchaser has received the pamphlet Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home.

(e) Purchaser has (check (i) or (ii) below):

(i) received a 10-day opportunity (or mutually agreed upon period) to conduct a risk assessment or inspection for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards; or

>> (ii) waived the opportunity to conduct a risk assessment or inspection for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards.

Agent's Acknowledgment (initial)

(f) TDL Agent has informed the seller of the seller's obligations under 42 U.S.C. 4852d and is aware of his/her responsibility to ensure compliance.
